Employees Hike Fund Gifts 11%

By VALERIE EVENDEN

Press-Record Staff Writer

Collinsville, Ill., Tri-Cities Area United Fund campaign with the announcement today that seven industrial employee groups have pledged contributions totaling 11.8% higher than a year in the fund-raising drive a year ago.

The increase is $12,963 over the amount donated by the same groups last year.

In the current drive, a goal of $100,000 is being sought to finance the operation of 19 health-welfare-service agencies in 1971. "We're very optimistic," a drive official commented today.

Initial Report Meeting

The initial report session for division chairmen and other United Fund volunteers is scheduled for 4 p.m. today at the YMCA.

J. S. M. Dashwood, vice-president, Miles Laboratories, Inc., general chairman of the drive, is expected to announce this afternoon that 52% of the total goal has been reached.

The presents $111,977 from two divisions — Industrial Employees and Industrial Corporate Gifts.

The drive chairman will name the industrial employee groups whose "fair share" contributions total $122,707. Last year, the same groups donated $109,744.

Ahead of Year Ago

Coincidentally, today's report meeting is being held on the same date as the initial session in 1969 — Oct. 31, and $80,700 of total goals were reached.

Expected to generate further optimism at this afternoon's meeting is a report by Leo H. Konzen and Carl Mathias, co-chairs of last weekend's United Fan Fair.

Proceeds derived from the two-day kickoff event, which attracted between 8,000 and 10,000 patrons, will add an estimated $90,000 to the total. Fund records, it was learned.

To date, total receipts from the Fun Fair amount to $8550, with funds from advance ticket sales yet to be tabulated. The fun fair a year ago raised $5100.

City to Install 120 New Street, Alley Lights

An extensive program to upgrade Granite City's street and alley lighting system on a city-wide basis was approved by the city council at a regular meeting Tuesday night.

The plan calls for installation of 120 new lights in street and alley locations in all parts of the city.

The action was approved by the city council under which Illinois Co. Co. will be requested to install the new lights. Alderman Steve Basa said the new lights will add another $20 per year to the city's power bill.

Council members also approved on final passage an ordinance establishing a two-hour limit on parking on the immediate vicinity of St. Elizabeth Avenue and eliminating parking in some sections.

The ordinance prohibits parking on the southern side of 22nd street from Iowa to Washington avenue to the western side of Washington avenue to 22nd street.

The two-hour parking limit applies on the east side of 22nd street from Washington to 22nd street.

Limit of two hours will be in effect from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. daily except Saturday.

Passage of the ordinance followed presentation of a written legal opinion by City Attorney Leon Scroggins holding that a council vote cast Sept. 22 on a motion to vacate Iowa street in the future would be of serious air pollution.

He said the report outlined the need for air sampling in Granite City.

The public is being invited to an open forum discussion on the proposed new state constitution for Illinois to be held at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Oct. 12, at St. John's Church, 1000 W. Chicago 2901 Nishimura road.

Two of the local delegates, Wendell Durr, an Edwardsville attorney, will be present to discuss the proposed constitution with the audience and to answer questions.

Dust Pollution Reduction

Hoelscher said that on the basis of the 1969 annual report of the Illinois State Air Sampling Network, Granite City is one of the fewest areas of serious air pollution.

THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS RICHER Mrs. Helen Diehl of Columbus, Ill., a former Granite Cityan, talks with Harry Barnes of the Press-Record in his news office Tuesday. An article in Monday's issue enabled her family to learn of the existence of long-lost U.S. Savings bonds believed to be worth more than $5000.

Air Pollution In GC High, State Says

An article in Monday's Press-Record on discovery of four U.S. Savings bonds issued near St. Louis 30 years ago to former Granite City residents ended a search for the owners of the bonds listed on Price's list.

The find, Cong. Ichord called upon Price to see if he might be able to locate the associates because the Granite City residents ended a search for the owners of the bonds listed on Price's list.

Mrs. Harold (Helen) Diehl of Columbus, Ill., and her sister, Mrs. Joseph (Mary) Cell of Fort Worth, Tex., expect to receive the proceeds from the bonds, now worth $5000, from the U.S. Treasury.

The Palenich family formerly operated a grocery store at the Lee address.

The congresswoman called the Press-Record to advise that she had received two addresses related to information leading to the whereabouts of any of the parties named as assignees in the bonds.

Price's article brought immediate responses from the Palenich family, and early Tuesday Mrs. Diehl, formerly Helen Palenich, appeared at the Press-Record office to obtain information and begin steps necessary to recover the money.

Mrs. Diehl said that after the lished, she had an old chest of drawers lay stuff behind a partition in a drawer in an old chest.

eral weeks ago with a Mississ-

Chief Warrant Officer David A. Bourbon has returned to duty at Hunter Army Air Field in Savannah, Ga. He was released last month from the U.S. Naval Hospital in Charleston, S.C., where he had been hospitalized since July 1, when injured seriously in an accident at Fort Stewart.

The 31-year-old pilot returned home from combat duty in Vietnam earlier this year. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Bourbon, 2455 Waterman Avenue.

Since his reassignment to Hunter Field, CWO Bourbon has received his second through twenty-first awards of the Air Medal. Each award signifies a combat mission, military authorities explained in announcing the presentation last week.

GCHS Oboist Selected as Illinois, Indiana Sign Reciprocal Income Tax Pact

Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie and Indiana Gov. Edgar D. Whitcomb have signed a model state income tax withholding agreement. The agreement is designed to prevent double-withholding for persons who live in one of the states and work in the other.

"It means citizens will be no worse off with double withholding which takes such a large chunk out of thousands of paychecks. And it permits an end to the annoyance of sending in two tax returns," Ogilvie said. An estimated 200,000 persons will be affected by the agreement.

Citizens will file their state income taxes only in the state in which they work. The agreement is retroactive to Jan. 1, 1970. To claim refund for taxes withheld this year, residents must file 1970 state returns in the state in which they worked.

This will be the last time citizens will file double returns. Revenue Director George E. Mahin said similar reciprocal agreements are being negotiated with other states bordering Illinois.

BETH ANN LEDBETTER Youth Symphony Member

Jors are music and German.

The youthful musician originates from a music-oriented number in the National Girls' Band.

Beth Ann began studying oboe, a difficult double-reed instrument, at the age of nine years, while a student in the Nameoki School band. She continued through Coolidge Junior High Band to the Senior High Band under the direction of Louis E. Meeks.

Currently she is studying privately at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus with Professor Herbert Oberling. The oboist also began studying piano at the age of six and presently is teaching both piano and organ.

Experienced Accompanist

The youth orchestra member is a member of the church, having served as part-time organist at Nameoki Presbyterian Church and St. Paul Episcopal Church in St. Louis for the past two summers.

For the past three years, Miss Ledbetter has received scholarship awards to the "Music and Youth" at Southern Illinois University-Carbondale campus, where she studied under George Hussey, professor of oboe. While there, she participated in band, orchestra, vocal and small ensemble work.

In the Illinois High School Band Association state solo and ensemble contests, she has earned superior ratings on oboe solos the past two years.

Machinist Representative New Chairman of LAMP

Joseph Cointin, Machinists District 9 directing business representative, has been named chairman of LAMP, the Labor Management Plan.

LAMP was formed four years ago by the Regional Industrial Development Corporation (RIDC) to effect a betterment of the overall effects of our area and encourage greater cooperation between labor and management for the betterment of the entire bi-state community.

There are 16 labor and 16 management representatives on LAMP, equally divided between Illinois and Missouri.

Previous LAMP chairmen have been Bill James, the first chairman, E. B. "Bill" James, Enterprise, E. E. "Gene" Walla, president Team sters Construction Drivers Local 682 and past director Fred M. Luth and Sons Contractors. Each year the chairmanship is rotated between labor and management. RIDC selects the LAMP chairman; the rest of various members are appointed by Dr. Delph Morris, chairman of the board of RIDC, addressing the meeting, stressed that "LAMP has acted as a beacon in an area often clouded by dark shadows of labor and management relations."

Cointin pointed out that the bi-state region is on the verge of a second great building boom. He said the construction of a new airport and a mass rapid transit system will be a multi-billion dollar building boom unrivaled even by the spur resulting from the construction of the Gateway Arch.

The new machinist for 27 years, was elected the union's chairman of LAMP over the past year.

In his acceptance comments, Cointin called on both labor and management to consider the problem of how to settle strikes and jurisdictional disputes by some method other than a "picket line."

"Right now we in labor have no alternative," Cointin said. "That's what doesn't mean there isn't one. Perhaps we can find a solution, as we did in the formation of LAMP, by coming up with a new potential solution to a strike alternative—and then work to implement it right here in this committee."

Cointin complimented outgoing chairman Luth for his outstanding leadership of LAMP over the past year.

Drivers Local 682 and past director Fred M. Luth and Sons Contractors. Each year the chairmanship is rotated between labor and management. RIDC selects the LAMP chairman; the rest of various members are appointed by business representative, and in 1959, he was appointed assistant director business representative.

Machinist District 9 representatives over 30,000 members throughout the eight-county Missouri-Illinois bi-state area.

On a national level, Cointin is a member of the executive board of the Greater St. Louis Labor Council and the Missouri State Labor Council.

At the state level, he is president of the Mid-west States Council of Machinists (covering an eight-state area), president of the Missouri State Council of Machinists and a member of the Missouri State Labor Council Executive Board.

Locally, he is a member of the executive board of the Greater St. Louis Labor Council, chairman of the Council's Region 9, a member of the Executive Committee, and a member of the Regional Labor Assembly. He was a charter member of the St. Louis County Business and Industrial Development Commission.

Key to Industrial Growth

Utilization of present growth, development of existing and proposed industrial parks, and construction of industries at some of the many other sites available here can be stimulated through improvement of highway access to the west and south, thus conferring last comment.

The preparation that the Great River Road, even in its current incomplete status, handles considerable traffic volume bound for such points as Detroit, St. Louis, Indianapolis and Louisville.

Route 15 is connected with Interstate 270 at Mitchell and, when linked with the McKinley Bridge, will afford convenient access to the 55 leading to the Southwest.

The south - of Niedringhaus overpass and the 12th street connection are to be pursued as the primary objectives at this time, followed by the 12th street-to-Venice portion of Route 151.

The linkup with the McKinley Bridge may take a year and a half to accomplish, he said.

Two additional members of the new authority are to be named later by St. Louis Mayor J. C. Cervantes under a joint agreement between St. Louis and the state of Illinois involving development of the area.

Board members William S. Badgley and Erwin A. Hankamer were appointed to study national accounting firms to handle the board's records, and submit recommendations later.

The firm that will be selected will be responsible for all legal matters for the board.

Dunbar School Patrol Boy Chosen for Honors

Rodney Davis, a student at Dunbar school in Madison, has been selected as one of 10 winners of the Madison County School Safety Patrol special program.

The youth, son of Mrs. Louise Anderson, 33 Lee Wright Homes, and the other county winners will be honored at a luncheon at 11:30 a.m. Friday at the Lewis & Clark restaurant, East Alton, where they will be awarded a certificate of achievement. They also are the parents, principals and district superintendents.

Entries were submitted by elementary and junior high school principals who chose to participate in the ranking, covering traits as ability, promptness, alertness, attentiveness, appearance and leadership, as well as comments by principals.

The rating sheets will be forwarded to the office of the superintendent of public instruction where a state committee will select the top 10 winners throughout the state.

They will be guests of the Chicago Motor Club, which founded the school safety patrol 10 years ago, and the state luncheon meeting in Chicago where they will receive Distinguished Service medals and U. S. Savings Bonds.

So contributions to the United Fund will go directly to the Arthritis Foundation relieve the distressed, and make the substantial contribution to the income earned in the community.

Good Neighbor:

The Community Fund of the United Fund sends seeds that are fertilized, watered and tended by many volunteers to give huge results in love and happiness, and tremendous financial advantage to the giver in reducing taxes.

"But again, my program could begin a control now whereas the controls which would be established in the future in this program might not be initiated until at least a year from now."

Since becoming blind in 1968, Rev. Mernitz has studied braille and is learning to "see" as part of his air clean-up.

There is nothing in his plan which should be interpreted as opposition to the proposed $750,000,000 bond issue that will be voted on Nov. 7. They are tax-deductible, too!

Won't you help every Tom, Dick and Harry by giving generously to the United Fund?

You can address your contribution to the Tri-Cities Area United Fund, 2021 Edison Avenue, Granite City.

Mother Hubbard squash is also popular for use in centerpieces.

Such Hubbard squash have a smooth, tan skin and is somewhat oval in shape, measuring from 15 to 18 inches in length and weighing between 5 to 10 pounds—you'll frequently find some pieces rather large, a whole side of a plant, slightly rough and warty skin may be dark bronze-green, blue-gray or red. Its sweet, dry flesh makes Hubbard squash a favorite ingredient for dessert pants and puddings.

Absentee Voting Begins; Mail Deadline Oct. 29

One Hundred Ninety-Six servicemen and women have filed applications for absentee ballots with Clerk Eulalia Hotz, announced today. Ballots have been mailed to them. Monday was the first day for civilians to file for absentee ballots.

Both civilians and persons in the United States Service, who file their application with the county clerk on or before Oct. 29, servicemen and women, who are on leave, may vote in person at the clerk's office. Absentee ballots have been mailed to 38 civilians whose applications were filed since Monday. Eugene F. Cochran, 1718 East St. Louis, Granite City, was the first elector to vote an absentee ballot in the office of the county clerk. Three persons in the United States Service, home on leave, also voted in person at the clerk's office.

Election booths have been erected in the county clerk's office and Miss Hotz said that there will be approximately 500 booths for voters to vote all five ballots. These are the General Election Candidate Ballot, which is white; the Illinois State Amendment Ballot (blue), the Banking Law Amendment Ballot (pink), the Judges Retention Ballot (green) and the Anti-Pollution Bond Proposal (yellow).

All persons seeking absentee ballots must be registered voters, except members of the Armed Services and Merchant Marines and their dependents, civilians employed by the Government outside the United States, members of religious and welfare groups attached to the Armed Services; and the dependents of persons in these categories.

The word "Dependent" is explained in the Election Laws as father, mother, brother, sister or child of voter, age 16 or over, actually residing with or accompanying the member of the United States Service and is financially dependent upon the member. Miss Hotz said.

Farmers' Bonus

The Federal Government has absentee ballot application cards available at military, naval and air force bases, with free Air Mail service.

However, the law also permits the father, mother, brother, sister, husband or wife, of the age of 21 or over, of any elector in the United States Service to make application to the county clerk for themselves. All forms of applications for absentee ballots are obtainable only from her office, Miss Hotz advised.

This system prevents duplication of effort and confusion on the part of the elector concerned, as an alphabetical index is maintained in her office for this purpose.

As soon as applications are received for persons in the United States Service, ballots are mailed by Air Mail, with an Air Mail stamp on each envelope. Absentee ballots have been mailed to 38 civilians whose applications were filed since Monday. Eugene F. Cochran, 1718 East St. Louis, Granite City, was the first elector to vote an absentee ballot in the office of the county clerk. Three persons in the United States Service, home on leave, also voted in person at the clerk's office.

These are the General Election Candidate Ballot, which is white; the Illinois State Amendment Ballot (blue), the Banking Law Amendment Ballot (pink), the Judges Retention Ballot (green) and the Anti-Pollution Bond Proposal (yellow).

Many of the civilian applicants are college students, persons on vacation, and truck drivers who will be out of the country during the November election. While some persons have permitted the physically incapacitated to vote absentee, if registered, not too many have authorized themselves to do so.

Hospital Notes

Physically incapacitated electors who file for absentee ballots have a special certificate attached, which must be completed by his duly licensed attending physician or a Christian Science practitioner. Those attending physicians or Christian Science practitioners in the State of Illinois, who are listed in the Christian Science Journal, attest to the fact that such elector is physically incapacitated. Both the elector's physical signature and the physician or practitioner's signature must be notarized.

New Plymouth Line on Sale At Granite City Agencies

Plymouth Fury, Chrysler-Plymouth Division's entry in the standard-size car market, offers a new front air rear appearance, a new 360 cubic inch V-8 engine and engineering improvements for the 1971 model year, now on sale at Elledge Motor Co., 19th street and Grand Avenue, and Maddox Motors, Inc., 4100 Numoco road.

"The standard size market segment accounts for better than 27 per cent of the cars that are sold in the current year," operators of the agencies said. "The improvements we have made in the Fury line put us in a good position to increase our share of that large market."

"One of the major additions to the Fury line is the Quiet Ride suspension which is available only on the more expensive Chrysler and Imperial models. The 1971 model is the quietest riding Fury we have ever had," the agency operators added.

"The new 360 engine has been designed to contribute to smoothness and quietness and, with automatic transmission, it will make responsive because it delivers quicker acceleration at low speeds."

18 Models Offered

Fury offers 19 models in five series: Fury I, II, III, Sport Fury and Sport Fury GT. The Fury II and Fury III are available only on the more expensive Chrysler and Imperial models. The 1971 model is the quietest riding Fury we have ever had," the agency operators added.

"The new 360 engine has been designed to contribute to smoothness and quietness and, with automatic transmission, it will make responsive because it delivers quicker acceleration at low speeds."

Each outboard low beam lamp has a single nylon brush with a small nozzle attached. When activated, fluid from the lamp passes through the nozzle to the brushes while the washer unit drives the brushes at a rate of 50 strokes a minute.

The Cassette stereo tape player with the ability to record is another new option for 1971. The recording feature allows the operator to record a tape for up to 10 hours at a time for replaying later. An optional microphone plugs into the unit and allows the recording of voice or other sound. The text of the proclamation reads:

"A deep and compelling need in our nation is for a better understanding of and appreciation for the courage and dedication of law enforcement officers throughout the United States."

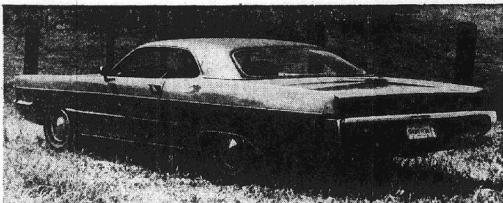

Governor Richard Ogilvie issued a proclamation designating Oct. 25-31 as Law Officer Appreciation Week in Illinois. It was signed by Sen. Ralph T. Smith, Congress authorized Pres. Richard M. Nixon to designate the last week in October for national law enforcement recognition and appreciation of the dedicated law enforcement officers throughout the United States.

The Brougham package formerly available only on Sport Fury models is also offered on Sport Sedan, Station Sedan and Sport Suburban wagons.

Fury is built on a 120 inch wheelbase and has an overall length of 213 inches. With an overall width of 68.6 inches and a height of 55 inches, it is one of the roomiest cars in its price class.

Touring-Quiet Ride

Touring-Quiet Ride is a blend of anti-rattle Unibody construction, front torsion bars and sway bar for maximum stability, and a new isolator system utilizing rubber mountings.

THE 1971 PLYMOUTH FURY offers quiet riding with introduction of Torsion-Ride in all models. New front and rear styling along with a 360 cubic-inch V-8 engine are among improvements in the new Plymouth line this year. New models are now on sale at Elledge Motor Co., and Maddox Motors, Inc., both in Granite City.

models for 1971 will feature variable window glass.

Models in the Fury, Sport Fury, Superbird and Sport Fury GT series have a new die-cast grille with concealed headlamps. All other Fury's have a new front aluminum hood. All Sport Fury models have a special urethane rear bumper applique which protects against dents and scratches and is color-keyed in five body colors.

These specimens are now in the SIU Museum collection and are described in a new Museum Research monograph titled "Specified Corals from the Lingle and St. Laurent Limestones (Middle Devonian) of Southern Illinois and Southeastern Missouri."

The first reference to corals in southern Illinois was made by a specimen from the Devil's Backbone near a Grand Tower, Jackson County, in 1868, Franklin reported. No other fossils have been discovered and described as late as 1967, including a 1922 listing of 22 species, but none of the previous publications have been comprised of both the Lingle and St. Laurent strata.

Found in Union County

One excellent specimen was found in the St. Laurent limestone near Cottontown, Union County, cornucopia-shaped fossil, 56 millimeters in length and 50 millimeters in maximum diameter, with orifices projecting above

Coral Fossils Prove Sea Covered Southern Illinois

Some 350 million years ago, the surface, also found on Clear Creek. A smaller fragment of this kind but with branchlets was discovered at Wittenberg, Perry County, Mo. A mass of these tube-like corals turned up at Wittenberg, Perry County, Mo.

Nine hitherto unknown species of the coral, now fossilized, have been discovered by Southern Illinois University Museum geologist George H. Fraenier and his students.

"Patch reefs" of coral, covered by a shallow sea, grew over the whole of the central United States, Fraenier said.

In the Southern Illinois area the coral bed grew to a thickness of 4 to 6 feet, becoming slightly thicker in Missouri and to the north, he said.

"The coral was light, paler than in the Great Barrier Reef of Australia and in the southern reefs of Florida," he explained.

Stratum in 2 States

The St. Laurent stratum crops out at fault blocks in St. Genevieve and Perry counties in Missouri as well as in Jackson and Union counties in Illinois.

"The Lingle Limestone was named from limestone beds on Lingle Creek in Union County, Illinois," Fraenier said.

It is exposed in Jackson, Union and Alexander counties in southwestern Illinois and in Perry and St. Genevieve counties in northeastern Missouri.

The Lingle Limestone, like that of the St. Laurent Limestone, is rich in brachiopods and corals. Both are good index for the formation and indicate a close relationship between the Lingle Limestone fauna and that of the Ten Mile Dam Limestone of Michigan, Indiana and Kentucky, the Hungry Hollow Formation of Ontario, and the Centerfield Limestone of New York."

Prof. Keene Appointed Acting Division Chief

Carol Keene has been named acting divisional director of philosophical studies at Southern Illinois University, Edwardsville.

Mrs. Keene, who holds the rank of assistant professor in the department of philosophy, will go on sabbatical leave until March 20, 1971. She has been working closely with Dr. Corr since joining the faculty last fall.

Dr. Corr, director of St. Louis University and Fontbonne College, Miss Keene received her A.B. degree from St. Xavier College, her A.M. from Loyola University and her Ph.D. from St. Louis University.

Named to Outstanding Young Women of America in 1967, she is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and a specialist in philosophy, contemporary philosophy, philosophy of religion and process metaphysics.

Miss Keene says, "It is amazing that despite the diversity of philosophical background in the philosophy faculty at the Edmondson campus, a great sense of loyalty and harmony exists among them. That pleases her even more, she says, is the lack of discrimination against women in her field."

The acting chairman has announced that advanced philosophy courses will be offered during the 1970-71 academic year: Advanced Philosophy of Science and Introduction of Philosophical Analysis, to be offered during the winter quarter; and Introduction to Phenomenology, to be offered during the spring term.

Infants, 4 to 24 Months, Take Swimming Lessons

Swimming lessons are now available for infants between the ages of four months and 24 months at the Tri-City YMCA, according to Michael Jesse, aquatics director at the local facility.

The program, first of its kind in the Quad-Cities area, supplements the Mother-Tot program offered for youngsters two years of age to six years.

The program, first of its kind in the Quad-Cities area, supplements the Mother-Tot program offered for youngsters two years of age to six years.

Registrations are now being accepted at the YMCA for a second "Mother-Infant" swimming course. Jesse said this week, "We have a waiting list already," the instructor added, adding the follow-up series will probably start in about two weeks.

Army Offers Training In Medical Skills

Qualified men and women now may receive faster promotions as well as special training in selected medical skills under the Army Medical Skills Enrollment option, Sgt. R. B. Maday, Granite City Army recruiter said.

To enlist under the medical skills option applicants must meet basic eligibility requirements and specialized requirements for each training. Enlistments may be for three, four, five or six-year periods. Applicants may be married or single; however, women applicants must have dependents under 18 years of age.

The majority of swimming programs sponsored by youth organizations or recreation departments are designed for pre-school age children. Consequently, a program must be developed to "waterproof" these youngsters.

Program Challenge

"The program really presents a challenge," Jesse said, "for the number of problems which must be solved. Probably the biggest problem is the communication barrier, which exists between the mothers and the youth in this age group. This means that all the skills must be attempted to teach the children.

After several months of training, the children will be able to swim. However, unfortunately, the mothers are sympathetic to their baby's discomfort and hesitate to continue with the swimming lessons.

Consequently, the child is unable to adapt to the environment because he is never familiarized with it. Parents can accomplish a tremendous number of things to help the baby adjust to their world, if they are willing to do so. Unfortunately, the parents fail to realize that the success they often see or hear about in this field are "fear is a normal reaction of everyone until they are accustomed to a new environment, and a fear of water is normal until they are used to it."

The mother's reaction to this crying is the first big handicap which they must overcome before the child can be dealt with. However, unfortunately, the mothers are sympathetic to their baby's discomfort and hesitate to continue with the swimming lessons.

State Training 26 Investigators At Police School

Illinois Department of Law Enforcement Director, Lt. Gov. D. Brown has administered the oath to the fourth class of Illinois Bureau of Investigation trainees in ceremonies at Springfield.

Swearing-in ceremonies for the class of 26 took place at the State Police Academy according to IBI Capt. Mitchell Ware. Following the ceremonies, the men began a 10-week intensive course which includes instruction in criminal intelligence and investigation, firearms, defensive tactics, surveillance, arrests, raids and legal matters.

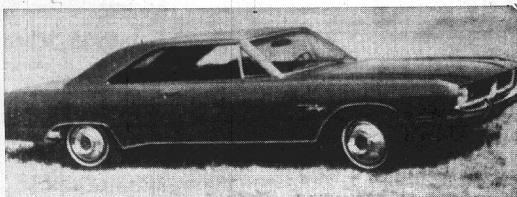

Special Agent Edward Ratal of Rockford is supervising the fourth class during its training, Ware said. Instructors for the training course represent numerous state and local law enforcement agencies.

The elite investigative unit, a division of the Department of Law Enforcement, was created by Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie during his first year of office, Ware said. Authorized by the 76th General Assembly to combat organized crime and illegal traffic narcotics and dangerous drugs, the unit considers the most comprehensive state investigative unit in the nation.

In operation for less than 10 months, the IBI force now numbers more than 125 men, who have been selected from more than 900 applicants. Each prospective agent is required to pass a college degree or two years of solid investigative experience.

'71 Dodge Offers Optional Engines, Upgraded Style

When you have a winning combination, why change it? That's the idea behind the all-new 1971 Dodge Dart, according to Jack Schmacker of Granite City Dodge, Inc., where new Dodge models are now on sale.

Dart, since it was first introduced, has been the best buy of the compact," Schmacker said, "and we will end the 1970 model year with another record for this popular model."

"Dodge dealers still have sales priority on 1970 Dart in the current model year. The best previous year was in 1965, when they neared the 190,000 mark."

The formula for Dart's success will be relatively unchanged in 1971. Included in the model lineup are low-line Dart and Dart Custom four-door sedans, and Dart Swinger two-door sedan.

"The lowest priced sector of the compact Dodge line is where the action is," Schmacker said. "The Dart is strong and we expect to strengthen its market position."

Area Glass Collection Day Set for Oct. 24

Plant Manager Joseph Lemieux has announced that Alton Glass Co., Inc., will hold its third glass collection day on Saturday, Oct. 24, from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. The program will do its best to collect Alton and surrounding communities' used glass containers.

The glass collection program has been established on a regular basis and glass will be collected every other month at the plant.

The redeemed glass will be ground into crushed glass known in the industry as "cullet," used in manufacture of new glass and about 15% of the material is used in making new glass "cullet."

The Alton plant uses from 10 to 15 tons of cullet per day in the manufacture of glass. One of the sources of cullet is bullet casings from outside vendors.

One Ton of Glass Paid

Overweight groups will pay individuals one cent per pound, or $20 a ton, for emptied and clean bottles and jars separated by color and date between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. Oct. 24.

"Whether we like it or not, we are the leaders of the free world," said Sen. Ralph Tyler Smith (R-Ill.), Monday warned. "We must be prepared to defend our foreign policy, our foreign policy will be disastrous."

"Whether we like it or not, we are the leaders of the free world," said Sen. Ralph Tyler Smith (R-Ill.), Monday warned. "We must be prepared to defend our foreign policy, our foreign policy will be disastrous."

"We cannot, as we have tried, retreat to a fortress America and the philosophy of isolation."

Smith said that with the world growing smaller every day, such a "head-in-the-sand" approach is completely unrealistic.

"History has demonstrated time and again that a pose of neutrality leads to our involvement in major conflicts."

Smith said that he supported President Nixon's foreign policy of appeasement, or peace at any price, has always led us to the point where even the liberals had to fight.

"There are powers in this world who are pledged to our destruction. They have told us so. We must be prepared to let them know that we will not accept their determination to our national fate—that we have the will and the intention to sur-

"Only then can we hope to contain them and keep them from building to the point where we are doomed to worldwide conflict and destruction."

Smith said that he supported

President Nixon's foreign policy of appeasement, or peace at any price, has always led us to the point where even the liberals had to fight.

"We will not be able to accept safety glass like that used in auto windshields because of the plastic materials between the two layers of glass," Smith said. "The machines will not crush the material, and they become jammed when safety glass gets in the machine."

Smith also set up in the parking lot to handle the small quantities brought in, but those groups with trucks must have their cullet weighed at Earl

Beers' Truck Scale, 1804 East

Broadway, across from the plant.

To keep the cullet separated, groups will have to use boxes, buckets or barrels. When dumpling, the cartons will be returned at the time of dumping.

One of the major problems in recycling glass is separating the various components in the glass.

Research is also being con-

Re-use of waste glass in glass plants is only one of many ways it is being used.

Glass can be ground into fine sand for composting or use in sanitary landfills. When in-seinated, it breaks up into small pieces to make an effective soil landfill.

The three major components of glass are sand, limestone, and soda ash, and when returned to earthen earth, glass also helps around the incinerator furnace charge, contributing to more efficient combustion.

"Because it is inert, glass does not contribute to air polution which would be composed, it's a valuable soil conditioner," Lemieux said. Another large potential use for waste glass containers is as a replacement for crushed lime stone in asphalt paving for city streets."

"Glassphalt" Street

"Owens-Illinois paved the first

"glassphalt" street in Toledo last October as a result of an experiment in cooperation with the University of Missouri-Rolla to determine whether glass would be a practical replacement for crushed limestone," he said.

"The 36-foot-wide 180-foot-wide strip of asphalt had been well into one of the worst winters in Toledo's history. If "glassphalt" does prove practical, it could provide a market for all of the glass containers in the cities, any of which have their own own asphalt plants."

Lemieux said, glass also can be used as the sub-base for highways. A glass subbase has been used by a road contractor on a part of Interstate 75 through Toledo.

"The basic problem in solid waste is developing means of separating the various components to the places where they can be reused," Lemieux said.

"The federal government, in industry and government commissaries are currently seeking workable solutions to the separation problem."

"The glass container industry is doing research aimed at developing means of mechanically separating container glass from raw refuse and sorting it artificially by color for reuse," Lemieux said.

"Owens-Illinois has a task force working on solid waste whose number one project is finding a economical way of getting cullet back to our 18

glass container plants."

Research Projects

"Research is being conducted now where machines will be able to separate all components of waste and return these components to the industries for reuse; paper back to the mill, aluminum back to the smelter, scrap iron to the foundry, and glass back to the recycling plant," Lemieux said.

Research is also being conducted on other uses of glass.

Open Burning Pollutes Air, Can Cause Injuries, Poisonous Fumes

To the Editor:

The existing air pollution regulations prohibit the open burning of waste by industrial and commercial sources. However, there is no specific prohibition of the backyard incineration of individual homes.

In traveling about the city, I am surprised at the large number of people who burn trash apparently being used for backyard burning.

This I find surprising in view of the fact that collection services are provided by the city, which permits the disposal of two 30-gallon containers of refuse each week. I am sure that few homes generate this much solid waste, potential of backyard burning, there are good reasons for stopping this practice.

Today's household trash consists mainly of discarded cans and closed bottles that will explode and send deadly fragments flying from the can.

There are numerous recorded instances of serious injury, indeed.

The increased use of plastic containers results in slow, smoldering burning of those plastics which often result in the ignition of deadly poisonous fumes.

The open fire increases the chances of fire spreading to surrounding valuable structures. The risk to property and人身安全 is high.

If you must use an open fire, it is important that it be supervised by a responsible person.

If at all possible, these valuable natural fertilizers should be returned to the lawn or garden, either composted or digested.

If you must dispose of leaves by burning, your cooperation will be appreciated. While the smell of burning leaves is pleasant, the high concentration of smoke can have adverse effects on our lungs, particularly to those persons with respiratory illnesses.

In the fall when leaves fall, additional care must be taken with regard to their disposal. If at all possible, these valuable natural fertilizers should be returned to the lawn or garden, either composted or digested.

We will appreciate your cooperation in this regard.

PRESENTS CASE FOR AEROBIC TAVERN LAW

To the Editor:

On Oct. 5 you ran a letter from a Madison resident who is against the taverns in our city. May I take this opportunity to answer this editor?

The taverns may be in local business flats alone. This doesn't include state or federal license fees, insurance, union dues, unemployment compensation, liability, workers' compensation, personal property and real estate taxes on our businesses, sales tax, Illinois State Tax, charities and the regular costs of living we all incur.

One of the requirements is Drug Shop Insurance, which is required by law. We are one of four states out of the 50 in the union that require this insurance.

Our premiums range from $500 per year to $2500 for one insurance alone. Think about it carefully—over $2000 a year for only one insurance.

Our insurance is freely used by all of the citizens of this state and others as well. Drug Shop lawsuits are very frequent. They against us in the courtroom, and they don't hesitate to spend the money made by these suits.

Every time we hear of a major slaughered cargo of cattle, we know we are human and the loss of anyone's life is serious to us all.

But we also think of the many times we have called a car to take care of customers who have obtained liquor elsewhere.

The families of tavern owners don't go hungry. I know I never have. Do we eat because we have? No, we eat because we have the time and inclination enough to get up every day and put in 12 to 18 hours working for a living, or do we simply apply for state aid?

Granted, some families on aid can't afford to buy more than what they are just too lazy to apply for state aid?

The loss of our businesses may put as many as people out of work as there must be the loss of the support.

We are distressed when car insurance goes up, so does ours. We are not exempt from increases in premiums because we are a bad risk.

But how many of the wrecks today involve minors who have obtained beer or liquor in their own refrigerators and homes? We check identification for minors. Do parents at home?

Dope is a major problem in our modern society, and I guess one has to wonder if the majority of the taverns is to blame.

It is the blinding of the taverns that has been overlooked, though, is that does not affect do the alcoholics as a matter of fact, heroin users don't even touch alcohol.

If the taverns are the major cause of divorce in the country, then by all means close up. The majority of divorces were caused by the ground of mental cruelty, desertion and physical cruelty.

We have no magnets, our friends are not magnets, no trading stamps to our customers, and we have no visible means of forcing anyone to take a drink.

People who want to drink will drink anywhere, any place, any time.

They will purchase their needs at the drug store, grocery store, or one of the larger liquor store chains. These places all sell.

Mr. Klassen points out that "it's not a question of whether cities should enlarge and upgrade the waste treatment plants; it is a must." He also accurately noted that the new ordinances do not affect the residential areas.

It is the lack of enforcement that currently should be addressed, stopping residential and industrial growth.

Although the bonds must be retired, the inflation factor may offset the interest cost.

And the statewide financial assistance program will not be affected by the new tax measure.

Municipalities currently should be paying up to 70% of the cost of erecting and upgrading treatment plants, will need to raise only 20% if they receive the maximum state and federal grants.

The state will pay 25% and Uncle Sam 55% in regions like this, where federally-aided projects are coordinated by the East-West Gateway Council.

All voters should become familiar as possible with the 1970 Anti-Pollution Bond Act and the ballot question they will be asked to decide on Nov. 3. There will be a decided impact on each of us, including our health, our pocketbooks and the purity of our rivers and streams.

Anti-Pollution Bond Proposal Challenges Cities to Upgrade Their Treatment Plants

As Illinois Environmental Protection Agency Director Clarence W. Klassen told the Municipal League delegates and city engineers in Chicago recently, the future of Illinois depends on a three-year referendum Nov. 3 on issuance of $750 million in anti-pollution bonds.

More than 90% of the present city sewage treatment plants in Illinois fail to meet water quality standards which will become effective in 1972. The cities must take remedial steps in the meantime.

State and federal officials wield a "big stick" to assure compliance—severe fines can be levied and collected from city treasurers who then replace them by the next day. And construction sevens can be ordered stopped, blocking residential and industrial growth.

Municipalities currently should be paying up to 70% of the cost of erecting and upgrading treatment plants, will need to raise only 20% if they receive the maximum state and federal grants.

Announcing our new ones.

It's 1971 and Chrysler-Plymouth is coming through for you.

We're coming through.

We're coming through with variety. Five completely different car lines—76 different models. More kinds of new cars than anyone else in the business.

We're coming through with value. Every Chrysler and Plymouth is built and engineered with extra care. To make sure you get a dollar's worth of automobile for every dollar you spend.

We're coming through with brand-new options. Like a Stereo Cassette Tape System available with a microphone. You can record your own voice or record directly from the radio.

It's 1971. And Chrysler-Plymouth's coming through for you.

Plymouth Satellite Sebring

It's the newest idea in fours. It's front to back, designed to satisfy to be a two-door. With no compromises. So you get the styling and handling of a specialty car—all for the price of an intermediate car.

And every one of our four-doors (Satellite, Satellite Custom, Satellite Brougham) was designed from the ground up to be a four-door. The result? People who take a back seat in our four-doors, don't take a back seat.

Chrysler New Yorker

The New Yorker lives up to its look of quiet authority. It's one of 15 different Chryslers coming through. Coming through with the size, room, comfort and power you want for all the living you do. With new options like an electric sun roof, to let in the light of the sun or the moon.

Chrysler Imperial

Chrysler Imperial is the car for all the living you do. It contains all the luxury you want, with personal touches. Like the exclusive optional rear seat heater. This allows your rear seat passengers to maintain their own level of comfort—cool or warm.

Plymouth Sport Fury

It's coming through for you with a lot more car. Everything about Sport Fury comes through big: the seats, interior room, body, engine and brakes. Plus, we've added Torsion-Quiet Ride—with a Sound Insulation System that separates road noises from you.

Plymouth Duster

Our success car is coming through for you. Still small enough. Still big enough. Small enough to fit in about 1/4 of a parking space. Big enough to seat five, comfortably. And still small enough to fit your budget. Duster. The big difference in small cars.

Plymouth Barracuda

The super-tough sporty car that comes through with torsion-bar suspension for better handling.

Coming through for you with economy in Barracuda. Coming through for you with luxury in Gran Coupe. And coming through for you with great performance in Cuda.

DELEGATE RAY JOHNSEN (man with hand near mouth) of this senatorial district, the 53rd shares a comment with Edward H. Jenison of the 44th district. The other scene shows the 1970 Illinois Constitutional Convention at work; spectators lean forward to watch the Bill of Rights Committee present its recommendations to the full convention.

REPRESENTATIVE HALL attracted tourists this year as constitutional delegates met in the old state capitol. It served Illinois until 1876 and was reopened in November 1969 after a complete restoration. With Con Con discussions completed, it has become a museum. It is in this building at Springfield that Lincoln delivered his "house divided" speech. Desks in the restored Senate chamber feature gas lamps, quills and plugs of tobacco.

Army Nurse Program Cut to 14-Month Duty

The all-officer Army Nurse Corps now is accepting applications from registered nurses to serve on active duty for 14 months, with duty in Korea added to the previously announced volunteer tours in Vietnam.

Until a change in Army policy, all women volunteers were required to be minimum age 21 to tour, according to Sgt. R. B. Mabry, local Army recruiter.

Under the program, the new officer, male or female, will serve primarily in an Army hospital in the U. S. depending upon where the need is greatest. The nurses also may volunteer for Korea or Vietnam.

"Perhaps through the program we can find nurses who are more willing to serve for 24 months," Sgt. Mabry said. "They are needed in the Army more today than ever before."

Participants must be graduates of a baccalaureate degree program in nursing or an approved hospital school of nursing, must be registered nurses, male or female, between the ages of 20 and 33 and U. S. citizens. They must single or married. Married women must have no dependents under 18.

More information may be obtained by contacting the recruiting office at 1206 Niedringhaus avenue or phone 876-3950.

The event, sponsored annually by the Granite City High School Band Parents Association, will take place in the local high school cafeteria next Thursday. Serving will take place from 5 to 8 p.m.

Tickets may be purchased from band students and association members. Mrs. Bono, co-chairwoman of the supper.

Ottwein Calls For Debates in Senate Campaign

State Sen. Merrill Ottwein (R-Edwardsville) has challenged his opponent in the campaign for his Senate seat to open debates. "At any time, anywhere . . . and on any reasonable terms."

He suggested that one be held weekly during the last month of the campaign, one in each of the four largest cities . . . Alton, Granite City, Wood River, and Edwardsville.

"I think he feels that an appropriate date for the Alton event should be on or about Oct. 15."

"October 15, 1968 was the date that Altonians witnessed the last of a series of Lincoln Douglas debates," Ottwein said, "and although neither of us might possess their oratorical abilities, it should be an appropriate anniversary."

Senator Ottwein said that the public needs to know the candidates better . . . their backgrounds, their viewpoints, their legislative involvement, their voting records . . . and "since the Senate is a debating body, even our debating ability," he said.

The campaign seems to have determined Senator Ottwein's fate, since one in which the public could be ill-served by inadequate information. Arguments about whose signs are being torn down by whom aren't enough at this level and time.

"Several attempts to set up debating forums have failed," Senator Ottwein remarked, "including some radio talks. I urge all concerned to consider and to appear side by side. One of my people will be contacting him in attempt to set up times and places, and I encourage others who are interested in public service to join with me in asking for planning. Any format would do, although I would prefer some opportunity for direct examination and question of each other as a part of the program."

Dixon Demands Bigger Tax Rebates to Municipalities

State Sen. Alan J. Dixon of Belleville, assistant minority leader in the Illinois Senate, addressing the Illinois Municipal League Convention in Springfield, urged county and city leaders to support rebates of state-collected taxes to cities as well as a reform of the tax structure.

"I want to emphasize that I am suggesting a more equitable distribution of tax revenue from the state to governmental units . . . cities where now, for instance, are growing faster than the revenue."

"Any discussion of city revenue needs is premised on one indisputable fact: cities need more revenue, but not part of the new state income tax, in our view, increases in any of our rates," Senator Dixon said. "I am suggesting a more equitable distribution of tax revenue from the state to governmental units . . . cities where now, for instance, are growing faster than the revenue."

"Local governments received additional aid when legislation was passed raising their share of sales taxes by one-half cent."

"The first of these — a home-state exemption — provided that despite the ease of collecting, sales taxes are unequitable and regressive, placing a disproportionate burden on those least able to pay. Now, we have a state income tax, which is more difficult for courts to rule is permissible under the Illinois Constitution."

Speaks as Legislator Senator Dixon, the Democratic candidate for Illinois State Treasurer, said he was addressing the convention as a legislative leader, and not as a candidate.

"Assuming tax rates remain unchanged, the revenue loss from these exemptions is estimated to total between $76 million and $90 million in 1971."

Senator Dixon, author of the Budget (under the personal jurisdiction of the Governor), the Taxpayers Federation of Illinois and the Illinois Chamber of Commerce, all endorsed recommendations in this range, and it is interesting that the Bureau of the Budget's figure was the highest of the three.

"Tax reform and relief that provided by the tax exemptions is more apparent than real. While it is true that the homestead exemption for elderly citizens provides some needed relief, its effect may be a shifting of the burden of property taxes to certain classes of taxpayers who already suffer from disproportionately high property taxes," Senator Dixon said.

Steel Imports Hit Close to Peak in August

Steel imports into the United States held close to their 1970 peak in August, while exports by domestic steelmakers continued to sag.

According to the American Iron and Steel Institute, 1,111,000 tons of foreign steel entered the country during the month, a dip of only 23,000 tons from July's yearly high.

At the same time, steel exports skidded for the third month in a row, to 500,000 tons. This was a drop of more than 68,000 tons from July.

Statistics, AISI observed, indicate that foreign steelmakers may be concentrating their U.S. marketing efforts on key products.

For example, three product categories — welded pipe and tubing, hot rolled sheet and cold rolled sheet — constituted 44 percent of August's import value.

Stainless, alloy and tool steels earned more than one dollar in every ten dollars of August's steel import value—despite the fact that these specialty steels made up only 4% of the import tonnage.

Through the first eight months of this year, foreign steelmakers earned 2.6% more than they did during the same period of 1969 — even though 1970's import tonnage was off 17 percent from last year's pace. Steel imports averaged $150.91 per ton in the first eight months, 1970, compared with an eight month, 1969 average of $121.99 per ton.

Part of this increase, however, can be attributed to the boom in world wide steel demand during the year, which tended to firm world steel prices.

"This cut distribution of rebates to cities and counties during fiscal 1970 to $62 million from the originally pledged $35 million," Senator Dixon said.

For example, three product categories — welded pipe and tubing, hot rolled sheet and cold rolled sheet — constituted 44 percent of August's import value.

Stainless, alloy and tool steels earned more than one dollar in every ten dollars of August's steel import value—despite the fact that these specialty steels made up only 4% of the import tonnage.

Through the first eight months of this year, foreign steelmakers earned 2.6% more than they did during the same period of 1969 — even though 1970's import tonnage was off 17 percent from last year's pace. Steel imports averaged $150.91 per ton in the first eight months, 1970, compared with an eight month, 1969 average of $121.99 per ton.

Part of this increase, however, can be attributed to the boom in world wide steel demand during the year, which tended to firm world steel prices.

"This cut distribution of rebates to cities and counties during fiscal 1970 to $62 million from the originally pledged $35 million," Senator Dixon said.

Steel Imports Hit Close to Peak in August

Steel imports into the United States held close to their 1970 peak in August, while exports by domestic steelmakers continued to sag.

According to the American Iron and Steel Institute, 1,111,000 tons of foreign steel entered the country during the month, a dip of only 23,000 tons from July's yearly high.

At the same time, steel exports skidded for the third month in a row, to 500,000 tons. This was a drop of more than 68,000 tons from July.

Statistics, AISI observed, indicate that foreign steelmakers may be concentrating their U.S. marketing efforts on key products.
